Lawrence B. Fox, life-long Bethlehem resident and practicing attorney, has crafted a two act play, utilizing his limited talents of spontaneous incoherence and premeditated dullness to achieve an acquittal through confusion. All of the stories that will unfold before your incredulous eyes are true (except where Fox may have slightly embellished the facts). Follow the poor souls on stage as they seek justice, a concept that sometimes proves to be elusive.

This play is a distillation of some of the stories appearing in Fox's four humorous books: "There's No Justice – Just Court Costs;" "Has My Lawyer Called Yet?" "No Noose Is Good Noose;" and "The Confused Lawyer's Field Guild To The Courthouse." These books may be purchased at the Moravian Book Shop, 428 Main Street, Bethlehem, PA., and through the internet at www.lawrencebfox.com or www.forcounsel.com.
